Dear Tom (Tamatea),
 Tena Koe me era o matou
 e noho mai na i kona.
 It is such a happy position when you have found people you have been groping in the dark to find. At this stage I had better introduce myself, (on paper) I am the grandson of Hoani Taiaroa, brother of your father Te Waati I am aged 30 and spent 3 years in Christchurch with the Dept. of Maori Affairs, there I lived out at Taumutu with the Ellison's whose family belong to the Taiaroa line of the South Island, however related to them
